Stephanie Trick began playing piano at the age of five. While in college, she pursued stride piano & classic jazz styles made famous by James P. Johnson, Thomas "Fats" Waller and others. Stephanie was the 2012 recipient of the renowned Kobe-Breda Jazz Friendship Award, and has performed throughout the U.S. & Europe including Switzerland, Italy and the UK, the International Stride and Swing Summit, the Arbors Records Invitational Jazz Party, and Jazz Festivals in Breda Netherlands, Sacramento, San Diego, Connecticut, Cincinnati and Phoenix.

Paolo Alderighi received his degree in piano from the Verdi Conservatory of Milan, Italy. Influenced by music styles of Erroll Garner, Earl Hines and Teddy Wilson, he won 1st & 2nd Musica Jazz magazine's Top Jazz 2007 prizes and "Italian Jazz Awards, 2007." Paolo is a successful recording artist and teaches music culture at Bocconi University in Milan. He has performed and recorded with well-known musicians in America and abroad. Married in 2013, Paolo & Stephanie now live in St. Louis Missouri.
